

Harlem Prep films to show at Library

A series of films created, edited and produced by young filmmakers from Harlem Prep will be shown at the Library & Museum of the Performing Arts, 111 Amsterdam Avenue, March 25 at 2:30 p.m.

The five-part presentation includes "But We Will Survive," a testimonial by Harlem Prep students, teachers and administrators to the survival power of honesty, honor and love, featuring the Moja Logo Drummers and Dancers; "Video Tapes 1," produced by the Television Journalism Class; "Composition No. 1," an art film created by Oscar Williams involving death images surrounding Black brothers and sisters in their present environment; "Video Tapes 2," produced by the Television Production Class; and "Four Women," Ilanga Witt's dance and live footage interpretation of Nina Simone's song about Black women.
